About The Summit

The OpenInfra Summit is a global event for open source IT infrastructure professionals to collaborate on software development, share best practices about designing and running infrastructure in production, and make partnership and purchase decisions.

WHO ATTENDS?

The OpenInfra Summit brings together 2,000+ influential IT decision makers, infrastructure architects and open source developers from around the world. Professionals from many industries, including financial services, government, manufacturing, telecom and IT rely on open infrastructure to run their business. On average, the demographic makeup is:

- 35% Cloud Architect, Product Strategy
- 25% Developers
- 20% Sys-Admins, User, Operator
- 10% CEO, CTO, CIO, Executive Leadership
- 10% Business & Marketing
WHICH OPEN SOURCE PROJECTS?

A primary goal of the Summit is to bring together open source communities to help them collaborate and integrate technologies, ranging from projects hosted by the OpenInfra Foundation to other widely deployed projects. On average, the Summit has seen participation from 30+ open source communities including Ceph, Kubernetes, Magma, ONAP, OPNFV and the projects hosted by the OpenInfra Foundation: Airship, Kata Containers, OpenInfra Labs, OpenStack, StarlingX, and Zuul.

OPENINFRA VIRTUAL EVENTS BACKGROUND

What’s been happening since the last in-person Summit.

▪ Virtual OpenInfra Summit 2020
The OpenInfra Foundation’s first virtual event took place in October 2020, highlighting over 100 sessions and attracting 10,000 attendees from 120 countries representing 30+ open source projects.

▪ OpenInfra Live Keynotes 2021
This special edition of the weekly web show with highly produced keynote presentations from 30+ industry leaders has drawn over 24,000 total views in just a few weeks. Watch the replay at openinfra.dev/live/keynotes.

▪ OpenInfra Live
In March 2021, the OpenInfra Foundation launched OpenInfra Live, a weekly interactive series sharing production case studies, open source demos, industry conversations, and the latest updates from the global open infrastructure community, taking live audience questions throughout. It streams on on YouTube, LinkedIn, Facebook, and SegmentFault (China focused platform).

Episodes have received over 29,000 total unique viewers. To date we’ve produced over 30 episodes, with an average of 100 live viewers that typically grows to 1,500 views within the first month of streaming. Learn more at openinfra.live.

OpenInfra Summit
Berlin 2022

Collaborate directly with the people building and running open source infrastructure, including OpenStack, Kubernetes and 30+ other technologies.

Member Pricing

In recognition of the ongoing support of companies that are Sponsors or Members of the OpenInfra Foundation, we are happy to offer a member-only price, which is a discount off the regular sponsorship package price. All Platinum members, Gold members, Silver members, and Associate members will receive this special price. If you are interested in becoming a sponsor or member of the OpenInfra Foundation, you can learn more at openinfra.dev/join.

Booth Selection

- All sponsors will have the opportunity to choose their booth location
- Sponsors will be contacted in the order that the agreements were processed, at which time you will be given 24 hours to make your booth location selection. Due to the number of sponsors, if you do not make your selection in a timely manner, we must continue moving down the list.
- Additional guidelines will be included in the sponsor manual that you will receive after confirming your sponsorship. You are required to follow all guidelines and meet all deadlines included in the sponsor manual.

Important Dates:

- December 15, 2021 at 17:00 UTC (11:00am CST)
  Executable sponsorship contract made available at openinfra.dev/summit.

- Early April 2022
  Last day to sign Berlin sponsorship contract and receive full sponsorship benefits

Please reach out to jimmy@openinfra.dev with any sponsorship questions.

If your company has any past due balances owed to OpenInfra Foundation, these invoices will need to be paid in full in order to be eligible to sponsor the Summit. Please contact billing@openinfra.dev if you think you may have any overdue invoices.

PLEASE NOTE - ALL $ PRICES IN THIS DOCUMENT ARE LISTED IN US DOLLARS. ALL SPONSORSHIPS ARE SOLD ON A FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED BASIS.
